RAF Careers

There are a series of career events over the next few weeks for anyone considering a career in the RAF. Remember there are many different careers within the RAF including careers such as logistics, pilots, linguistics, personal trainer and even musicians! See Miss Hendrie if you would like to know more about careers within the RAF or if you would like to sign up to the career events!

Life and Chemical Sciences

There are a number of online opportunities for anyone interested in a career in the chemical sciences sector. These will be a series of career talks starting on 25th November... you will require access to ICT so please see Miss Hendrie as soon as possible in order to organise this! This is a great way of finding out a little bit more about the types of careers which exist within this sector!

Other Opportunities

Remember there are still opportunities available from last week's DYW Bulletin... including opportunities for those interested in STEM careers, Business and the Navy!

Gaming

There is a fantastic opportunity for anyone interested in a career in gaming! The event which will take place next Tuesday will give participants an insight into what it takes to be successful in the industry, with a live Q & A with some of the industry's most successful people including companies such as Mediatonic (Fall Guys), Ubisoft (Assassin's Creed), Epic (Fortnite) Rocksteady (Batman: Arkham titles), 4J Studios (Minecraft), TT Games (Lego Star Wars), and Sony PlayStation's former Director of Strategic Content, Shahid Ahmad. This is very unique opportunity in an area that can be difficult to source work experience! See Miss Hendrie ASAP in order to reserve you place!
