

W/B: 01.02.21

DYW Weekly Bulletin!

British Airways

British Airways has relaunched its online work experience! There are three excellent modules for you to work your way through which give you an insight into the various careers within the company, as well as application advice! There is also the opportunity to sign up and be mentored by a successful employee! This is a fantastic opportunity that will make any CV/Personal Statement stand out! Email Miss Hendrie for more information!

You Can Be a Doctor Experience

You Can Be A Doctor have launched an "Intro to Anatomy" session. With the support of staff from The University of Edinburgh, this session will give future medics an insight into what it is like to study the human body. This session will take place virtually next week and is free of charge! It is open to anyone is interested in studying human biology or medicine. You must register in order to attend next week, please email Miss Hendrie for the registration link!

A reminder that Medic Insight Applications are now open via Facebook!

Not Sure What To Do When You Leave?

If you know that you will soon be leaving school and are still unsure about what pathway you would like to take- there is a fantastic virtual career fair on Wednesday THIS WEEK... let me know ASAP if you would like a space! This could be what helps you decide!!

Business Summer Work Experience

If you are in S5 and interested in a career in Business, Accounting or Finance and looking for work experience- Young Professionals are offering a virtual summer work experience programme which could be for you! Email for more info!

Nestle

Nestle are offering a day long virtual careers fair for anyone who is still considering their career options! There are various opportunities within the company including apprenticeships! If you think this is a company you would like to work for or find out about email for info!

Nestlé