Virtual Career/Apprenticeship Fair

On the 17th March there will be a fantastic opportunity for you to attend a virtual career fair where you can gain more information about career pathways, including apprenticeships! There will be over 100 companies available to highlight the various opportunities available for you!

If an apprenticeship is a pathway you are considering this will be a really worthwhile online event... there will be lots of apprenticeships advertised and possibly some tips on how to apply!

JP Morgan

JP Morgan is the world's leading investment bank and are now offering a work experience opportunity for anyone interested in a career in technology. There have been many pupils who have successfully applied for this in the past and have talked very highly of the experience. This could be the gateway to a future apprenticeship/career with the company also.

The opportunity will take place during August but the application deadline is 7th March! If you are interested email Miss Hendrie for more info!

Conservation!

The Scottish Wildlife Trust will be holding a virtual careers day on the 12th March. This will be an opportunity for you to hear more about their work and the various job roles within this sector.

Law

There is now another fantastic opportunity to gain work experience in law! Browne Jacobson are a top 50 law firm with offices all over the UK and are offering a two day work experience opportunity during the Easter Holidays. If you are thinking of applying/have applied to do law, work experience is vital and hard to come by! The registration process is quick and simple. This is open to all S4-6 pupils who would like to learn more about this career pathway and gain experience which could feature on a personal statement!

Young Professionals Apprenticeships

Young Professionals are the organisation who have created many of the opportunities you see here each week. They have brought together 7 of their biggest employers to host an event next week to tell you more about the various apprenticeships these employers will be offering this year. The event is available for all! Email to register!
