

DYW Weekly Bulletin!

DYW Developing the Young Workforce

Please inform senior pupils of the following opportunities and events. Any questions- feel free to see Miss Hendrie in F054

Business Breakfast!

During registration you should have been given an information letter regarding this year's

Business Breakfast!

This year our Business Breakfast will be taking place on Saturday 23rd November from 9am until 11.30am. We have many local and national businesses who have agreed to come along and give more information about possible careers you may be interested in. In addition to businesses, Universities, Colleges and Apprenticeship providers will also be there.

This is a fantastic way to find out more about possible careers, application processes and network with potential employers! Please hand in the attendance return by Friday 1st November- it is important your return this even if you cannot make it.

WOW Ambassador Meeting

There will be a WOW Ambassador meeting this Wednesday at lunch time in order to give you more information regarding the 13th November Education Scotland which many of you will be involved in.

NHS Work Experience!

Can those pupils who applied for the nursing work experience please see Miss Hendrie during Tuesday's interval? Many of you have heard back about this and it is important you let Miss Hendrie know when you will be out and for how long you will be out of school.

Graduate Apprenticeship

Many of you have noted your interest in the Morgan Stanley apprenticeships which are now open. Barclays will also be opening their apprenticeship applications soon too- if you think you may be interested in applying for these and would like to attend a short in-school event to gain more info please see Miss Hendrie in F054 this week.

Media at College

If anyone is intending on leaving at Christmas and interested in media, applications for the Media course at City of Glasgow College are now open. See your Guidance Teacher or Miss Hendrie for more info.
